GIVING OUT FOOD IN MARCH 2024

During March we have been giving out food again to the very poor families who want to work but cannot as there is no work.

The Andrew Clark Trust

They are always so grateful for the help we are giving; thanks to the donations we receive. It honestly brings tears to our eyes to see people in such a position, but so glad we can help.

We have also started our project Trash for Food and are able to give a group of 12 plus a leader, work for 4 days. Then another group starts.
